Andy: Thanks for sending this along. As you may know Joyce and our contractor are meeting on Monday. I am coordinating comments and will get you one set of comments that includes technical and legal. I plan on getting this to you Wednesday and then perhaps we can talk on Thursday and get some agreement late next week. We can then have it tied up before Amelia returns! Hate to stick you with it but I think it is in everyone's interest to get this wrapped up as quickly as possible. Also this will give you time to get our comments through your management team. Thanks again for your help in filling in with Amelia out of town. Jon
